Foreword

This Yizkor Book of Remembrance is for use during Yizkor Services at the Jacksonville Jewish Center on Yom Kippur, Shemini Atzeret, the 8th Day of Pesah and the 2nd Day of Shavu'ot. We hope the use of this book will help worshippers find consolation and discover inspiration in remembering their dead.

The printing of specific names of deceased loved ones in this Book of Remembrance has been made possible by the generosity of many donors. We are grateful to them for their loving act and thank them for their generosity.

May all who mourn make their remembrance of the good guidance, kind words, and upright deeds of the departed into an ongoing spur for nobler living.

“Remember the days of old” (Deuteronomy 32:7).

“The memory of the righteous is for a blessing” (Proverbs 10:7).

Their Memories Illumine Our World

There are stars whose light reaches the earth only after they themselves have disintegrated. And there are individuals whose memory lights the world after they have passed from it. These lights shine in the darkest night and illumine for us the path.

— Hannah Senesh

This booklet contains God's name.

Please accord it the respect it deserves.

Yizkor Service

We rise as the ark is opened:

ה' מִה-אָדָם וַתִּדְעֵהוּ בֶן-אָנוּשׁ וַתַּחֲשִׁבֵהוּ. אָדָם לַהֲבֵל דָּמָה, יָמָיו כְּצֵל
עוֹבֵר. בִּבְקָר יִצִּיץ וְחֶלֶף לָעָרֵב יִמּוּלֵל וְיָבֵשׁ: תָּשֵׁב אָנוּשׁ עַד דָּכָא, וַתֹּאמֶר
'שׁוּבוּ בְנֵי אָדָם. שׁוּבָה ה' עַד-מָתִי וְהִנָּחֵם עַל-עֲבֹדִיךָ:

Adonai , what are we human beings, that You have regard for us, mere mortals, that You take account of us?

We are like a breath, our days are like a fleeting shadow.
Our days are as grass; we flourish as a flower in the field.
But in the evening the wind passes over it and it is gone, and no one can recognize where it grew.

Teach us to number our days,
so that we will be able to acquire a heart of wisdom.

Those who know Your name trust You,
for You do not abandon those who turn to You.
Guard the person of integrity, and recognize the upright, for there is a future for a person of peace.

Psalms 144:3-4, 90:6, 90:3, 90:13

אָנוּשׁ כְּחֻצִיר יָמָיו כְּצִיץ הַשָּׂדֶה כֵּן יִצִּיץ: כִּי רוּחַ עֹבֵרָה-בּוֹ וַאֲיָנָנוּ
וְלֹא-יִכְיֶרְנוּ עוֹד מְקוֹמוֹ: וְחָסֵד ה' | מֵעוֹלָם וְעַד-עוֹלָם עַל-יִרְאָיו וְצִדְקָתוֹ
לְבָנֵי בָנִים:

The days of mortals are like grass;
we flourish as the flowers of the field.
A wind passes over them and they are no more;
and no one can recognize where they grew.
But Adonai 's compassion is everlasting.
God's kindness to children's children,
to all the reverent ones,
endures, age after age, unchanging.

Responsive Reading

O God, in the synagogue at Yizkor time we sense the presence and continuity of the generations.

Centuries of Jews seem to hover here.

We know, too, that even as we have come to this Yizkor service to remember deceased loved ones, so, one day, we hope other persons come to Yizkor services to recall us.

At this moment we remember our departed loved ones.

Yizkor is for remembering what our departed meant to us and what they should mean to us.

Some of us remember a mother, a father, or both, who provided life's necessities in our dependent years and who wanted us to mature into responsible and ethical human beings. We are grateful for the parental sacrifices made and guidance given, for the love that comforted and sustained us.

Some of us recall a wife or husband who shared our hopes and struggles, our successes and failures, our joys and griefs. We are thankful for each day our life was affectionately shared with theirs.

There are parents among us who call to mind a dear child whom they cared for and cherished. May we perceive that our love brightened our offspring's life as much as our child's love illuminated our life.

There are individuals here who recollect a sister or brother whose affection and comradeship especially enhanced the growing years of childhood and youth. May these memories of shared concern and companionship be consciously treasured.

We all think of relatives and friends whose deaths saddened us, frequently leaving gaping holes in our lives.

We also recall many others who have died: known and unknown members of our extended family in this and earlier centuries; the many generations of Jews who have bequeathed us a glorious Jewish culture and tradition; righteous men, women, and children of diverse civilizations and religions, lands and skin-colors, who have added something positive to the human ascent; those who made the supreme sacrifice for the cause of freedom on land, air or sea while proudly wearing the uniform of our country; the Jewish martyrs through the ages who chose to die as Jews rather than live a lie as Gentiles; the Six Million who, in the “civilized” world of the twentieth century, perished because they were Jews; the Jewish pioneers, military personnel, schoolchildren, and others who, in Israel, were slain by persons who would not have Jews live as a free people in their ancestral homeland. Adonai, help us to find the will and strength to live affirmatively despite the loss of loved ones.

May we prove worthy of what the departed have given us by more effectively perpetuating the noble ideals, practices, and causes they cherished. For we know that the deceased continue to prove a blessing when their teachings and example prod us to righteous deeds.

Those we have affectionately remembered are also linked with us when we further the historic chain of Judaism and the Jewish people, in whose ongoing existence we too find a consoling measure of immortality.

At this Yizkor service, when the realization of life's transience is so keen, may we resolve to make better use of each precious moment that is ours. May we henceforth live differently because we have remembered. Amen.

שְׁוִיתִי ה' לְנִגְדִי תָמִיד, כִּי מִיְמִינִי בֹל אֲמוּט. לָכֵן שָׂמַח לִבִּי וַיִּגַּל כְּבוֹדִי, אֵף בְּשָׂרִי יִשְׁכּוֹן לְבֶטֶח.

I have set Adonai always before me; because God is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices; my flesh also dwells secure.

In Memory of those that gave their lives in defense of our Country:

Exalted, compassionate God, grant infinite rest in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and pure, to all those who bravely laid down their lives for our country. Merciful One, we ask that You shelter them in Your eternal embrace. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. May they rest in peace. We pray that their ultimate sacrifice for the cause of liberty and freedom lead the world to a time of peace, when nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore. Then the glory of the Holy One shall be revealed, and all humanity shall see it together. And let us say: Amen.

Exalted, compassionate God, grant infinite rest in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and pure, to those who fought and fell in the line of duty as they defended the life of the Jewish People in its ancestral homeland and in the lands of the Diaspora. We pray also for the innocent souls of men, women and children, who perished as victims of terror attacks. Merciful One, we ask that You shelter them in Your eternal embrace. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

A Meditation

Our Creator, the Eternal One, delights in life. Because of God's love for us, and because we are so few, each of us is a vital part of God's kingdom. Though we are only flesh and blood, we are irreplaceable. When one of the House of Israel dies, God's own grandeur is diminished. May the memory of all those we remember this day, in love, be an undying source of blessing to us, to our children, to all Israel, and to all humanity.

Adonai is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of Adonai forever.*

The ark is closed.

A Yizkor Meditation in Memory of Family Members Who Were Hurtful

Exalted and Compassionate God, You know my heart. Indeed, You know me better than I know myself, so I turn to you before the recitation of Kaddish in this hour of remembrance. My emotions swirl as I say this prayer. I remember a family member who was often unkind to me, one whose death has left me with a legacy of ambivalence and hurt. Many are my feelings of regret for what was, and what might have been. I wish to do what is right in Your eyes. Help me, O God, to subdue any bitter emotions that are harmful to my own healing, and to find within myself a place where happier memories may lie hidden. Grant me the gift of acceptance and peace so that I may serve You with wholeness and a full heart.

May God's name be exalted and hallowed throughout the world that God created. May God's sovereignty soon be accepted, during our life and the life of all Israel. And let us say: Amen

May God's great name be praised throughout all time.

Glorified and celebrated, lauded and worshiped, exalted and honored, extolled and acclaimed, may the Holy One be praised beyond all song and psalm, beyond all tributes that mortals can utter. And let us say: Amen.

Let there be abundant peace from heaven, with life's goodness for us and for all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

May the One who brings peace to the universe, bring peace to us and to all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

A Prayer for Those Blessed with Loved Ones Who are Living:

Almighty God, while many of us call to mind loved ones who have gone to their eternal rest, at this solemn moment we raise our eyes to You, Giver of Life, and with a grateful heart thank You for Your mercy in having preserved the lives of other beloved family members and friends.

May it be Your will, Our God and God of our ancestors, to bestow them with health and strength, so that they may be with us for many years to come. Bless them even as they have blessed us; grace their lives with richness even as they have so graced our lives.

In return for their love and affection, may we bring them joy and lighten their cares. Grant us the privilege to help them in every way that lies within our power. May we learn to understand and to recognize the duty we owe them so that we never have cause to reproach ourselves when it is too late.

Shield our homes from sorrow. May peace, harmony and Your spirit ever reign within their walls. Keep us true to You and to all with whom we come in contact that we may do Your will with a perfect heart. Amen.

Life After Death

These things I know:
 How the living go on living and how the dead go on living with them so that in a forest
 even a dead tree casts a shadow and the leaves fall one by one and the branches break in the wind and the bark peels off slowly and the trunk cracks and the rain seeps in through the cracks

and the trunk falls to the ground and the moss covers it and in the spring the rabbits find it and build their nests
inside the dead tree
so that nothing is wasted in nature or in love.

Burial Practices at the Jacksonville Jewish Center

Does the Center have its own cemetery?

Yes. The Jacksonville Jewish Center owns and operates two cemeteries, both located adjacent to Evergreen Cemetery in north Jacksonville. Both are beautiful pieces of property with large shade trees and mature landscaping.

The original cemetery, usually referred to as the Old Cemetery, was opened in 1904 and contains the graves of many of the congregation's founding families. It is located at Gate 5 in Evergreen Cemetery. The newer cemetery, known as Center Memorial Park, had its first burial in 1956 and is located at 200 43rd Street East off of Main Street.

The Center maintains the cemetery grounds. The cemeteries are open from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. daily, except on Shabbat and Jewish holidays. A Memorial Service is held each year on the Sunday between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur at Center Memorial Park.

In keeping with Jewish tradition, conspicuous monuments such as mausoleums are not permitted in the Center's cemeteries. Permitted memorials include headstones, footstones, slabs, and metal plaques that are flush with the ground. With the approval of the Cemetery Committee, families may also plant approved boxwood shrubs or place benches near a plot. All markers, benches, and plantings are subject to Center cemetery policies and maintenance standards.

Additionally, the Congregation serves as the religious custodian of the Beth Shalom Cemetery which is located in Evergreen Cemetery and can be accessed through Gate 5 as well. All costs associated with purchase, preparation, and maintenance of burial plots are determined exclusively by Evergreen Cemetery.

Who may be buried at the Center cemeteries?

Only members may purchase plots in the Center's cemeteries. Associate members are not eligible to purchase plots. If a member's membership lapses, an existing plot may still be used if membership is reinstated and one year of dues is paid. In certain circumstances, an adult relative who is not a Center member at the time of death may be buried in one of the Center's cemeteries if one year of dues is paid on that person's behalf. Members of the Jewish community may purchase plots at the Beth Shalom Cemetery by contacting Evergreen Cemetery directly.

The cemeteries are consecrated ground, and burial in the main cemetery sections is reserved for those whose religious identity conforms with Jewish law, i.e., born of a Jewish mother or converted according to halakhah (Jewish law). At the same time, the Jacksonville Jewish Center recognizes the needs of intermarried families and maintains two designated intermarried sections for members: Section 14 at Center Memorial Park and a designated section at Beth Shalom Cemetery. All burial arrangements and preparations must be consistent with the tenets and practices of Conservative Judaism.

How is the price of a plot determined?

The Cemetery Committee plays an important advisory role in recommending plot prices through the House Committee and Finance Committee, with final approval by the Jacksonville Jewish Center Board of Directors. In making these recommendations, the Committee seeks to balance two core principles: 1. protecting the long-term financial sustainability of the cemetery for future generations, and 2. honoring cemetery access as a meaningful benefit of Jacksonville Jewish Center membership.

There are no additional charges by the Center at the time of the funeral. Synagogue members are entitled to the services of clergy at no additional charge. However, the funeral home will charge separately for services such as preparing and closing the gravesite and providing the grave liner.

A perpetual care fund has been established through the sale of cemetery plots. These monies are invested conservatively to support the long-term care and maintenance of the cemetery grounds. While the Cemetery Committee anticipates that the fund will be adequate for future needs, there may be occasions when voluntary contributions are requested for capital improvements. Members are also welcome to make donations to the fund.

Is it better to purchase the plot now or wait until it is needed?

The death of a loved one is a difficult time; purchasing a plot ahead of time, therefore, is one less decision to make when confronted with grief. Since plots are continually being sold, arranging for them ahead of time also allows family members maximal flexibility in deciding the number of plots they wish to acquire as well as their location. Plot prices may increase over time.

If your circumstances change and you are unable to use a plot you have purchased, you may transfer it to another member of the congregation, subject to the approval of the Cemetery Committee. In keeping with Jewish tradition, it is not permissible to make a profit on the transaction.

Plots may be purchased on an installment plan, with one-third due at the time of purchase and the balance payable over two years. Once payment has been made in full, the Center will issue a deed for the plot. A plot must be paid in full before it may be used.

Inquiries regarding purchase arrangements for plots at the Beth Shalom Cemetery should be directed to Evergreen Cemetery. Please note, however, that by agreement with Evergreen Cemetery the transfer of plot ownership at the Beth Shalom Cemetery is subject to the religious guidelines of the Jacksonville Jewish Center and must also be approved by the Senior Rabbi as the Congregation's mara d'atra (decisor of Jewish law).

Can I transfer my purchased plot to a different location at the cemetery?

A member may decide after the original purchase of a plot to switch to a different location within the Old or New Cemetery. In the interim, should the cost of plots increase, the member is responsible to pay the difference between the original purchase amount for the plots and their current cost.

While the exchange of one plot for another at the Beth Shalom Cemetery should be arranged directly through Evergreen Cemetery, by agreement with the cemetery all such transfers are subject to the religious guidelines of the Jacksonville Jewish Center and accordingly must also be approved by the Senior Rabbi as the Congregation's halakhic authority.

Can a plot be resold to someone else?

No. A plot may not be privately resold to another individual. It may, however, be transferred to another eligible member as described above, subject to Cemetery Committee approval, provided that no profit is made on the transaction.

Can I sell a plot back to the Center?

Plots cannot be sold back to the synagogue. It is a mitzvah, however, to donate a plot so that an indigent person can receive a proper burial. Donation of a plot may qualify as a charitable contribution. Donors should consult their tax advisor regarding deductibility, valuation, and applicable IRS requirements.

How do we prepare for a funeral?

At the time of death, the family should contact one of the approved funeral homes and inform them that the deceased or the family is affiliated with the Jacksonville Jewish Center. The funeral home will then contact the Rabbi and coordinate arrangements with Center personnel. If the deceased does not already own a prepaid plot, a family member will need to come to the Center to select a gravesite. In keeping with Jewish custom, the funeral should be scheduled as soon as possible, but it may not take place on Shabbat or a major Jewish holiday.

The Jacksonville Jewish community is fortunate to have a volunteer burial society, known as the Hevra Kaddisha, which assists with the proper preparation of the body in accordance with Jewish law and Center practice. The Hevra Kaddisha will wash and dress the body with dignity and care. It will also arrange for a shomer, a person who sits with the body until burial.

The Center currently works with Hardage-Giddens Chapels and Evergreen Cemetery, Funeral Home & Crematory, both of which are familiar with Jewish burial customs and requirements and work with the Hevra Kaddisha. Because nothing should impede or hasten the body's natural return to the earth, embalming should not be performed unless required by law. Jewish law also prohibits metal caskets; families should therefore select a simple wooden casket. Traditionally, both men and women are buried in simple shrouds, and a man is buried with his tallit. Women who have taken on the mitzvah of wearing a tallit may be buried in theirs as well.

The Rabbi will contact the family as soon as possible, consult with them regarding the funeral service, and answer any questions concerning the religious aspects of burial and mourning. At the family's request, the Rabbi and members of the Religious Committee may also assist with home services during the seven-day period of shiva.

Who may officiate a funeral?

Officiation is limited to the clergy of the Jacksonville Jewish Center, or, with the consent of the former, the clergy of another synagogue. Please note that this includes funerals for non-Jewish spouses buried in the Center's designated intermarried sections. The clergy of another religious faith may not conduct services at any cemetery associated with the Congregation. Can I pre-plan for my own funeral? Yes. Pre-planning is an excellent way to help ensure that your wishes are carried out in accordance with traditional Jewish observance. Both of the approved funeral homes offer preplanned and prepaid funeral programs, and the Rabbi is available to assist with any religious questions that may arise during the planning process. Pre-planning your funeral, along with pre-purchasing cemetery plots, can relieve your family of many difficult decisions and reduce some of the stress they may face at the time of death.

What may be included on a headstone?

Since ancient times, it has been the custom to mark a grave with a stone or monument. After Rachel died, “Jacob set up a pillar at her grave” (Genesis 35:20). A headstone serves several purposes: it identifies the grave for those who come to visit, honors the memory of the deceased, and marks a place of burial so that kohanim may avoid it, as required by Jewish law.

Jewish tradition does not prescribe a specific size or style for a marker or monument, but most cemeteries maintain their own guidelines. The Jewish teaching that all are equal in death often serves as an important guide in choosing an appropriate headstone.

A headstone customarily includes the English and Hebrew name of the deceased, the dates of birth and death in both English and Hebrew, and the deceased’s relationship to family members, such as father, mother, husband, wife, grandfather, grandmother, sister, or brother. It is also common to include the Hebrew letters פ"נ (po nikbar/nikberah, “here lies buried”) and תנצב"ה (tehei nishmato/nishmatah tzerurah bitzror hachayim, “May his or her soul be bound up in the bond of eternal life”).

Generally permitted:

- English and Hebrew name
- English and Hebrew dates of birth & death
- Family relationship terms, such as husband, wife, father, mother, son, daughter, grandfather, grandmother, brother, sister
- Traditional Hebrew abbreviations, including פ"נ and תנצב"ה
- Military footstone, where applicable and approved

Requires review/approval:

- Any wording beyond names, dates, and family relationships, unusual title or descriptor
- Any non-standard layout, emblem, or design
- Any inscription for a non-Jewish spouse in an intermarried section
- Any request involving Jewish biblical texts

Not permitted:

- Song lyrics or poetic, personal, or testimonial messages, such as “Forever in our hearts,” “Best dad ever,” or similar expressions
- Slogans or quotations, except for Jewish texts specifically approved by the Rabbi and Cemetery Committee
- Christian Bible verses or non-Jewish religious references
- Sports team logos, school logos or fraternal, civic, or organizational symbols
- Humor, inside jokes, nicknames used as sentimental captions, or personality descriptions
- Decorative images that are not part of accepted Jewish cemetery practice

Any non-standard element not specifically prohibited above is subject to the approval of the Cemetery Committee and the Rabbi.

Are military markers permitted?

Military footstones are permitted in the Center’s cemeteries. Other symbols, logos, or nontraditional markings are subject to the policies and approval requirements described above.

Who should review a headstone inscription before the headstone is ordered?

Before a headstone is ordered or inscribed, families should contact the Rabbi’s office to review the proposed wording and design. This helps ensure that the inscription is consistent with Jewish tradition, the practices of the Jacksonville Jewish Center, and the policies of the Cemetery Committee. Because headstones often include both English and Hebrew names, dates, family relationships, and traditional Hebrew abbreviations, advance review can help prevent errors and avoid the need for later changes.

Before a headstone is ordered or inscribed, families must contact the Rabbi’s office to review the proposed wording and design. The Rabbi’s office will coordinate any required review with the Cemetery Committee.

When is it appropriate to have an unveiling?

An unveiling may be scheduled after thirty days and generally before the first-year anniversary of death (yahrzeit). Unveilings are not held on Shabbat, holidays or other festive occasions on the Jewish calendar. It is appropriate to plan for the tombstone after Sheloshim (30 days) so that the tombstone can be ordered and an unveiling scheduled.

Is a minyan required at an unveiling?

It is preferable to have a minyan for the recitation of Kaddish, but it is not required. The Rabbi will be happy to advise you and, if requested, help arrange the service.

Are there any other issues regarding burial in a Jewish cemetery I should know about?

Questions are sometimes raised about whether individuals with tattoos or body piercings, those who have donated organs, or those who have died by suicide may be buried in a Jewish cemetery.

There is a common misconception that a Jew with tattoos or body piercings may not be buried in a Jewish cemetery. While Jewish tradition discourages practices that may be understood as unnecessary injury to the body, tattoos and body piercings do not prevent a Jewish person from being buried in a Jewish cemetery.

Organ donation was once viewed by some authorities as a form of mutilation of the body. Today, however, many contemporary Jewish authorities understand organ donation to be permissible, and often a mitzvah, because it honors the dead by bringing healing and life to the living. Questions involving organ donation should be discussed with the Rabbi when possible.

Suicide is prohibited under Jewish law and has traditionally been regarded as a grave matter. At the same time, Jewish tradition approaches these situations with great compassion. Unless there is clear evidence to the contrary, it is generally assumed that a person who died by suicide was not fully in control of his or her actions. As a result, the full range of Jewish burial and mourning practices is ordinarily observed, with care and compassion for both the deceased and the family.

Are flowers, decorations, or other items permitted at gravesites?

Jewish tradition generally discourages the use of flowers and other decorative items at gravesites. It is customary instead to place a small stone on the headstone or marker as a sign of remembrance and visitation. Artificial flowers, glass containers, balloons, figurines, flags, toys, and other decorative items are not permitted. Nothing may be planted without the prior approval of the Cemetery Committee. The Center reserves the right to remove flowers, wreaths, and other items that become wilted, unsightly, or do not conform to cemetery policies and maintenance standards. This helps preserve the dignity, uniformity, and proper care of the cemetery grounds.

What may be planted or placed at a gravesite?

At the Old and New Center Cemeteries, families may plant boxwood shrubs or dedicate a bench near the plot of loved ones. Placement, size, style, and maintenance remain subject to Cemetery Committee approval. Those interested in planting boxwood shrubs should contact the Center office. To dedicate a bench at the Beth Shalom Cemetery, contact Evergreen Cemetery's office .

What are the visitor guidelines?

The cemeteries are open for visitation from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. daily, except on Shabbat and Jewish holidays. Food and drink are not permitted, and pets are not allowed in the cemetery.

What is the parking policy at the New Center Cemetery during a funeral, unveiling, or Memorial Service?

Under the new cemetery parking policy approved in April 2026, the second section is designated as the only parking area to be used during a funeral, an unveiling, or the annual Memorial Service. Visitors should enter this section by using the roadway between Sections 13 and 14 and exit through the far access road between Sections 1 and 2.

During these occasions, traffic will be one way only. After leaving the parking area, visitors should continue driving forward and exit the cemetery without turning back. Re-entry through the Sections 13 and 14 entrance is not permitted. Overflow parking is available outside the cemetery gates.

We recognize that this represents a change from the way traffic has moved through the cemetery for many years. However, because of limited space and the need to show proper sensitivity and respect for those buried there, this policy is now necessary. In the future, a formal parking area is expected to be created in this section as additional burial sections are prepared. On days when there are no funeral, unveiling or annual Memorial Service, visitors may park next to their section unless access is blocked by posts and chains; however, doing so may block the roadway. For that reason, the Center's preference is that all visitors park in the designated parking area.

The Cemetery Committee hopes that many of your questions have been answered.

If you desire further information, please call the Center office at 904-292-1000.

אָנוּ מִתְפַּלְלִים לְהַחְזֹרֶתָם שֶׁל כָּל אֶחָיוּ בֵּית יִשְׂרָאֵל הַנִּתְּוֹנִים בַּשְּׁבִיָּה, וְאֵלּוּ שֶׁנִּרְצְחוּ, אָנוּ מְחַכִּים
לְהַחְזֹרֶת גּוֹפּוֹתֵיהֶם לְקְבוּרָה

As for our siblings, the whole house of Israel, who were murdered and who are being held in captivity and awaiting the return of their bodies for burial, we pray for their return.

אל מלא רחמים, שוכן במרומים, המצא מנוחה נכונה תחת כנפי השכינה,
במעלות קדושים וטהורים, כזהר הרקיע מזהירים, את נשמות כל אלו שנספו,
אזרחי ישראל ואזרחי מדינות העולם, עם ישראל וכל יושבי תבל,
אשר נהרגו, ונרצחו, ונשרפו, ונחנקו, הפצצו, עברו ענויים ונאנסו, הכאות והתעללות, ונטבחו באפן
אכזרי בשמחת תורה הגורלית.
ואת נשמות כל אנשי ההגנה, משטרה, וכוחות הבטחון, כתות הכוננות, תצפיתניות, וצה"ל, שמסרו
נפשם כגבורי ישראל. בגן עדן תהי מנוחתם. אנא בעל הרחמים הסתירם בסתר כנפיד לעולמים וצור בצור החיים את נשמותיהם.
ה' הוא נחלתם וינוחו בשלום על משכבותיהם. ונאמר אמן.

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and the pure whose radiance is like the heavens to the souls of all of those who perished, citizens of Israel and citizens of countries around the world, Am Yisrael, and all who dwell on earth, who were killed, who were murdered, who were strangled, and bombed, who were tortured and who were raped, beaten and tormented, and were cruelly slaughtered on that fateful Simḥat Torah.
And the souls of the defense personnel, the Israeli police, the defense forces, the emergency squad, the observers, and the IDF, who gave their lives as Heroes of Israel.
May their memories be a blessing and may they rest in paradise.
Master of mercy, may they find eternal shelter beneath Your sheltering wings, and may their souls be bound up in the bond of life. Adonai is their portion. May they rest in peace. And let us say:
Amen.

Isaiah 66:13

Like one whom a mother comforts.
So I will comfort you:
You shall find comfort in Jerusalem.

כְּאִישׁ אֲשֶׁר אִמּוֹ תִנְחֶמֶנּוּ
כֵּן אֲנִכִּי אֲנַחֲמָכֶם
וּבִירוּשָׁלַם תִּנְחֶמוּ:

Past and Future

Death and dying: two words in ordinary language,
An abstract noun and a present participle.
“Death: a permanent cessation of all vital functions.”
“Dying: the cause or occasion of loss of life.”
How concise is the dictionary!
How exact its definitions!

But death for us is a mixture of moods,
Tears, salt of self-pity, brine of resentment,
Anguish over things that never will be again,
Regret over things that could have been.
Bittersweet nostalgia,
Remembrance of that gray day,
A tear in the cloth, a handful of earth.

And now this moment
When together we cling to courage,
We who have the right to mourn.
It is the dignity of the soul
To hold on to the past
It is the dignity of the spirit
To take hold of the future.

To love and to forgive
Others and ourselves.
To rise from grief,
To sew the torn garment
To live, to love, to laugh,
And to remember
Always to remember.
